GOODNESS OF BLUEBERRY

Blueberry juice is a nutrient-rich beverage that supports heart health, brain function, digestion, vision, and overall wellness due to its high antioxidant and vitamin content.

ALMASIR®

Blueberries are considered a "superfood" primarily due to their exceptionally high concentration of antioxidants—specifically anthocyanins, which give them their deep blue color. These compounds help protect the body from free radicals, reduce DNA damage, and may lower the risk of cancer and premature aging
